Once registered, you will see how a student first chooses interests to create a personalized learning experience. Then, you will be able to complete the work assigned by the student's teacher. For this review, there are 7 assignments. These include 4 adaptive practice activities, 1 quiz, 1 quick write and 1 guided draft. When you are ready to try the various options, click on the play button in the right side of the assignment box.

Please keep in mind that:

- NoRedInk has content ranging from K-12th grade but our focus is 5th-12th grade curriculum.
- Teachers assign material based on the student's area of need.
- All lessons are meant to be first taught by the teacher and then students practice what they have learned via work assigned by their teacher.

Once you are done reviewing the assigned lessons, you may view additional practice topics available by clicking on the word Learn in the upper left of your main page. You can filter the information by clicking on the dropdown box by "see all pathways"
